Lauren Kimber	Good morning Gators, tomorrow, the Lakeshore Catholic school community will recognize Red Dress Day. Red Dress Day, also known as the National Day of Awareness for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls and Two-Spirit People, is observed on May 5th. The day honours and brings awareness to the thousands of Indigenous women, girls and two-spirit people who have been subject to disproportionate violence in Canada. Red Dress Day was inspired by Métis artist Jaime Black's REDress Project installation, in which she hung empty, red dresses to represent the missing and murdered women. Red dresses have become symbolic of the crisis as a result of her installation. The dresses are empty, so that they evoke the missing women, girls and two-spirited people who should be wearing them. Tomorrow morning you will see red dresses hung from trees outside of Lakeshore Catholic to represent the pain and loss felt by loved ones and survivors of the Indigenous community. Thank you in advance for your respect of this powerful visual representation.
Margaret Benko	Have you signed up for Co-op for next year? Did you miss the meeting yesterday morning? No problem - stop by Room 409 to see Mrs. Benko for the information you missed or check your school email for the co-op application form link.
